You are calling me into
Your open arms
God I choose to walk with You
With all my heart

All though trails may come
Let Your will be done
You've already won
So with everything
My heart will sing
That You are King

There is no one like You
You are
My God
Holy
You have won it all for me
You have won the victory
You have won the victory

In the quiet in the storm
I'm not alone
No matter what I face
I'm saved by grace
